

Emma Coleman, MBA, ATC, LAT

Emma is an Outreach Liaison for SSM Health Sports Medicine.

Emma connects athletes of all levels in the community with injury prevention information and specialty services offered by SSM Health Sports Medicine.

She attended Western Illinois University for her undergraduate education, where she received her bachelor's degree in athletic training.

After she graduated, she moved to St. Louis where she worked as the athletic trainer for Whitfield School through Athletico. During this time, she began pursuing her master's degree in business administration with a concentration in marketing through Southern New Hampshire's online program, finishing in 2017. Before transitioning to SSM Health Sports Medicine, Emma was an outreach liaison through SSM Health Cardinal Glennon SportsCare.
